

Contest Rules & Information

- The logo contest officially opens on January 25th, 2020. Residents must submit their completed entries by February 6th, 2020.
- This contest is presented by the Deep River 75th Anniversary Committee, with permission from the Town of Deep River.
- The entrant must be from or live in the town of Deep River or surrounding area, or have a connection to the town.
- The logo must include the wording “Deep River” or “Town of Deep River” and a second version can be done to include “75” or “75th” or “75th Anniversary”.
- The logo may include recognisable feature of the town.
- Individuals are welcome to submit multiple logos; however, they must have recognizable differences in order to be considered.
- Logos are to be provided with highest resolution possible.
- The logo must be designed solely by the entrant. The logo should not be a direct duplication of any previous logo.
- If chosen as the winner, Entrants acknowledge and provide permission to the Town of Deep River and the Deep River 75th Anniversary Committee to use the logo throughout any and all promotional materials now and in the future. Entrants relinquish any and all rights to the logo upon submission to the Town of Deep River.
- All entries must be submitted to townmail@deeperiver.ca or submitted on a DVD or USB to The Town of Deep River - Attention Deep River 75th Anniversary Committee by February 6th, 2020.

- SELECTION OF WINNER: The Deep River 75th Anniversary Committee will review all entries and choose the top three logo designs. The top three logo designs will be featured on social media, with an opportunity for residents to vote for their favourite logo. The Deep River 75th Anniversary Committee, along with Town Council will select the final winning logo from the top three entries. The winning logo will be announced by end of February 2020. Residents are encouraged to get creative and get involved in the 75th Anniversary Celebrations!
