Pursuant to Ontario Regulation 392/93 - Adequate and Effective Policing it is the policy of the Deep River Police Service Board with respect to police action at labour disputes that:

- a) The role of the police at a labour dispute is to preserve the peace, prevent offences, and enforce the law including offences against persons and property, in accordance with the powers and discretion available to a police officer under the law; and
- b) The Chief of Police will establish and maintain written procedures, in consultation with the OPP which is providing the services of the public order unit, that are consistent with section 8 of the Ontario Regulation 392/93 - Adequate and Effective Policing, on;
  - I. The role of the police at a labour dispute;
  - II. Providing information to management, labour, and the public on police procedures during a labour dispute; and
  - III. Secondary activities under section 89 (1) of the Community Safety & Policing Act.
